Ode to the crew of the "Sentimental Journey"

On the morning of 17 December 1944, the crew of the B-24 Superfortress "Sentimental Journey" was ordered to fly to the city of Cologne, Germany. The aircraft was the only one of its kind to complete the mission. The crew members were: Pilot: Captain [Name], Co-pilot: Captain [Name], Navigator: Captain [Name], Bombardier: Captain [Name], Engineer: Captain [Name], Tail Gunner: Captain [Name], Radio Operator: Captain [Name], and Flight Attendant: Captain [Name]. The aircraft was shot down by German fighters and crashed in the city of Cologne. The crew members were captured and held in a prisoner of war camp. They were released in 1945 and returned to the United States. The aircraft "Sentimental Journey" is now on display at the National Air and Space Museum in Washington, D.C.
